ORDER

Plaintiff Oman Fasteners, LLC (“Oman Fasteners”), has moved for a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction. The parties have subsequently represented to the Court that they have reached agreement on the terms of a proposed injunctive order that could be entered upon consent, without the defendants admitting that the plaintiff has demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits, and which would obviate the need for the Court to decide the merits of the pending motions. Plaintiff has further indicated that it seeks leave to withdraw its pending motions to permit the Court to enter the parties' joint proposed order.

The parties have further represented that, in light of this agreement, they each waive their respective procedural rights to a preliminary injunction hearing and defendants waive their right to respond to the pending motions. In light of the parties' subsequent agreement on the terms of an order and request that the Court enter such order, it is hereby ORDERED

ORDERED that should CBP determine that Oman Fasteners' imports are in excess of Oman Fasteners' projections, CBP may seek leave of the Court to require additional security as permitted by applicable law.

It is further ORDERED that this order is effective immediately and continues in effect until judgment is entered, or until it is otherwise modified or dissolved by the Court.
